Raag Soohee, Fourth Mehl, Chhant, First House:

One Universal Creator God. By The Grace Of The True Guru:

The disease of egotism is gone, fear has left, and I am absorbed in celestial peace.

The soul-bride is lovingly embellished with truth and contentment; her Father, the Guru, has come to engage her in marriage to her Husband Lord.

Anger and attachment have left my body and run away; I have eradicated hypocrisy and doubt.

The pain of egotism is gone, and I have found peace; my body has become healthy and free of disease.

By Guru’s Grace, O Nanak, I have realized God, the ocean of virtue.
Self-willed manmukh is separated, far away from God; she does not obtain the Mansion of His Presence, and she burns.

Egotism and falsehood are deep within her; deluded by falsehood, she deals only in falsehood.

Practicing fraud and falsehood, she suffers terrible pain; without the True Guru, she does not find the way.

God, the Great Giver, shows His Mercy, and leads her to meet the True Guru, the Primal Being.

Calculating the most auspicious moment, the Lord comes into the bride's home; her heart is filled with ecstasy.

They have consulted the almanacs, and the bride's mind vibrates with bliss, when she hears that her Friend is coming into the home of her heart.

The virtuous and wise men sat down and decided to perform the marriage immediately.

She has found her Husband, the Inaccessible, Unfathomable Primal Lord, who is forever young; He is her Best Friend from her earliest childhood.

O Nanak, he has mercifully united the bride with Himself. She shall never be separated again.
In the first round of the marriage ceremony, the Lord sets out His Instructions for performing the daily duties of married life.

Instead of the hymns of the Vedas to Brahma, embrace the righteous conduct of Dharma, and renounce sinful actions.

Meditate on the Lord's Name; embrace and enshrine the contemplative remembrance of the Naam.

By great good fortune, celestial bliss is attained, and the Lord, Har, Har, seems sweet to the mind.

In the second round of the marriage ceremony, the Lord leads you to meet the True Guru, the Primal Being.

In the Fear of God, the Immaculate Lord, sing the Glorious Praises of the Lord, and behold the Lord's Presence before you.

The Lord, the Supreme Soul, is the Lord and Master of the Universe; He is pervading and permeating everywhere, fully filling all spaces.

Deep within, and outside as well, there is only the One Lord God. Meeting together, the humble servants of the Lord sing the songs of joy.

The Lord says that, in this, the second round of the marriage ceremony, the unstruck sound current of the Shabad resounds.
In the third round of the marriage ceremony, the mind is filled with Divine Love.

Meeting with the humble Saints of the Lord, I have found the Lord, by great good fortune.

I have found the Immaculate Lord, and I sing the Glorious Praises of the Lord. I speak the Word of the Lord's Bani.

By great good fortune, I have found the humble Saints, and I speak the Unspoken Speech of the Lord.

I have obtained my Lord and Master, the fruit of my mind's desires. The Lord's Name resounds and resonates.

The Lord God, my Lord and Master, blends with His bride, and her heart blossoms forth in the Naam.

Servant Nanak proclaims that, in this, the fourth round of the marriage ceremony, we have found the Eternal Lord God.
